Building and Garden Lots,

CONTIGUOUS to, and at a small distance from the city, to be sold at the coffee house in Second street, on Wednesday the 20th of March, at 6 o'clock in the evening, containing from about 1-4 of an acre to about 4 acres each. The small lots fronting on Vine and Callowhill streets, on the west side of Schuylkill Second street, and the large lots containing whole or half or quarter squares, some of them bounded on the west by Schuylkill and the upper ferry road including some fine quarry lots on Schuylkill: the whole containing about 140 acres, and formerly known by the name of Springsbury; bounded on the north by Francis street, extending from the Ridge road to Schuylkill, crossing the canal, on which several of the lots will give fronts.

The situation of many of the large lots is on high ground, commanding beautiful views of the Schuylkill, supposed to be sufficiently detached to escape any unfortunate diforder which may be prevalent in the city.—The terms will be made known at the time of the sale.

N. B. Maps of the lots are fixed up at the middle and upper ferries on Schuylkill, at Seybert's Tavern, in Second street, Northern Liberties; at Ogden's tavern in Chesnut street, and at the coffee house.

The convenience of stone so near the premises will prove very advantageous to purchasers.

CONNELLY & Co. auct'rs.

Postponement.

☞ The uncommon severity of the weather having prevented many persons from viewing the lots above described, the sale is postponed until Saturday the 20th April next, when it will be held on the premises, at 2 o'clock in the afternoon.

The terms will be cash for those lots which are 50 feet, and 49 and an half feet front, and for those of a larger size, one half the cash to be paid down and the other half in six months from the day of sale.

march 20

TAKE NOTICE,

THAT I am to be sold on such terms, that the purchaser need not advance any cash, unless he pleases, till it is earned by my services, provided no accident happens me; or, if you please, I am to be farmed out for two years, and not less. I am a bright bay, full 15¼ hands high, of noble descent, my name is TRIMMER—I was got by Hall's imported horse Eclipse, my dam, purchased by Doctor Hall, was got by the imported horse Slim; my grand dam was got by Old Figure; my great grand dam by Tasker's Othello out of Selima, &c. &c. as will more fully appear by William Lyle's attested certificate who raised me. My character as a racer is well established; I won the colt's purse at Bladensburg of twenty guineas; I won a fifty guinea purse at Baltimore, a fifty guinea purse at Annapolis and a fifty guinea purse at Hagerstown. I never lost a race but the last I run at Alexandria, which was owning to my being badly shod, as I lost all my plates before I got in. I am in fine plight, sound in every respect; my offspring are in great repute, some of which are now in training for the turf—procure me good stands and entertainment and I am able to earn one thousand dollars per annum.

Any person inclining to buy or rent may know the terms by applying to John Carnan (Lovehall) Cecil county and state of Maryland, eight miles south of Elkton.

The saw-mill is all new, in good order, and also on an excellent construction, it is supplied with logs by means of a large canal, out of which they are hoisted into the mill, with machinery worked by water, a whole raft can enter the canal and come up to the tail race of the mill, adjoining is a small counting house, and a work-shop for the sawyer. All the other dwelling houses will be sold separately, three of which are well adapted for the retreat of private families during the summer, being pleasant, airy and cool.

The lots which will be sold separately, are beautifully situated for building in such a part of that flourishing village as will always hereafter encrease in value, and command a great price.

The sale will begin at 10 o'clock in the morning, but should the weather be very bad, it will commence the next fair day, at the same hour, at which time the terms of sale will be made known.

The Constitutional Gazette;

AND

Republican Courier.

The Subscriber respectfully offers to the Public, proposals for a Newspaper, under the title of the Constitutional Gazette; and Republican Courier.

IT is intended to be published three times a week in the city of Philadelphia; viz. on every Monday, Wednesday and Friday evening. The subscription will be five dollars per annum, half to be paid by subscribers in the city when called for. The difficulty of collecting small sums in the country, renders it necessary to ask the subscription, out of the city, to be paid in advance, or the name of a person in Philadelphia who will pay them regularly.

Although the proposed Newspaper will be of a smaller size than the unhandy sheets now generally in use, it will contain as much as the generality of the daily Gazettes. It is expected that a very small portion of it will be occupied by advertisements, which will occasion an unusual quantity of intelligence and information. It will be published in the quarto form, and regularly paged, to render it convenient for binding in volumes, to each of which an index will be attempted.

The principles intended to be supported, are those of the Federal and State Constitutions. The friends of the tranquillity, peace and happiness of this country, may rely on a calm, decent and firm adherence to those valuable Republican codes. The Editor is unwilling to make large promises, but he assures his friends and the public, that he has ground to rely on important literary and political contributions from various sources. Without such an expectation, he would not have undertaken, at this time, to publish a new Gazette. He believes the Press to be the noblest instrument in the command of Freemen, and he flatters himself that The Constitutional Gazette will not be found among the most exceptionable, nor among the least useful

Subscriptions are received by the different booksellers, and at the subscriber's office, No. 90, South Third street, at which place the Weekly Magazine continues to be published.

CALCUTTA, October 29.

Extract of a letter, dated Camp near Rampourah, 13th October, 1798.

"You have of course heard of the movement of our detachment, and the subsequent one of General Stuart, with the whole Futty Ghur station to join us. After having lain encamped before Bereilli ten days, we this day made a retrograde movement to this place, where one battalion had recrossed the Ram Gunga, and we follow to-morrow, in order to form a speedy junction with Gen. Stuart; Besoulah is mentioned as the rendezvous. The Prince accompanies us with three battalions, a thousand horse and eight guns; he is a very fine young man indeed, he has lately been appointed Governor of Bereilli.

"After the junction takes place, in order to avoid encroaching on the dominions of the Rohillas, we shall commence our march to Moradabad, a place situated exactly on the frontiers, when a formal demand is to be made of Golaun Mahomed's family, and in case of a refusal to deliver them, it is said that force will be used to obtain possession of them. They are to be conducted to Lucknow, where they are to reside, as hostages for Golaum's future conduct.

MILITARY INTELLIGENCE.

General Orders by the Commander in Chief,

16th October, 1798.

A draft is to be made from the 1st European regiment, of a sufficient number of men to fill up some vacancies of Matrosses, in the 4 companies of artillery, at the field stations, and that of Allahabad, including the vacancies which will be occasioned by the transfer of men recommended for the invalid establishment.

The establishment of Golandauz ordered by the minute of the Council of the 15th inst. is to be completed as expeditiously as possible, with a scrupulous attention to the choice of the men.

In selecting men from the Lascar companies, particular care must be taken, that none but such as from age, size, and good behaviour, are fit for Golandauz, be admitted on that establishment.

Mahometans are to be preferred for the Golandauz establishment, and no man is to be received upon it, who does not engage to embark on board of ship, whenever the service shall require his proceeding to sea—this is to be an expres stipulation on oath, previous to being enrolled.

An oppurtunity will be offered for rewarding deserving men, in the Lascar companies, by promotions to the rank Jemedars, Havildars, and Naik, if their shall be in them men qualified for these situations; in which case the selection is to be made with due attention to length of service and merit.

The dress of the Golandauz is to conform as much as possible to that of the European artillery-men; after the commander in chief shall have approved of a pattern coat, bounty cloathing will be prepared, they are to be armed and accoutred in the same manner as the European artillery.

The importance of the Golandauz establishment is so obvious, and the utility to be derived from it, so much depending on the proper choice of men, and their subsequent training and instruction, that the commander in chief cannot too seriously enjoin the utmost vigilance and exertion in these points on the part of the officers commanding companies, of the commandant of artillery, of the officers commanding battalions and detachments, and of the Major Generals in command of stations.

THE FRENCH BANK.

PARIS, November 26.

The administrators of the Bank current accounts, invited by the Minister of the Home Department to communicate to him the events of yesterday and this day relative to their establishment—the present situation of the chests, and the security which the public may explicitly rely on;—answer and declare:—

First—That Augustin Monnerin, General Director of said Bank has disappeared since yesterday, and notwithstanding every effort made to ascertain his present abode, has not been discovered.

Secondly—That this director left a short account of the bills bearing date Brumaire 20 [Nov. 10.] written and signed by himself, which has been presented the Minister, in which account Monneron acknowledges himself to be indebted to the Bank 2,500,000 franks, (about 500,000 dollars.) He does not indicate the causes of that deficit, and the administrators are yet unacquainted with them.

Thirdly—Whatever those causes may be, the investigation of the chest—the bills out—the current accounts—and that of the bills in the porte feuile, prove that the real property exceeded the nominal 2,409,094 francs, and 65 cents; [about 481,000 dollars] in which the value of the buildings is not included.

Fourthly—The bills in the Port feuille have been selected with such attention, and are endorsed by three persons of such responsility, that the Administrators and Stockholders can fully answer them, if the bankers and merchants consent to receive them in payment. Their interest, and that of the exchange are consonant with such an arrangement,

Fifthly—Agreeably to the present statement, it is evident, that the reimbursement of the bills is unquestionable; and will be entirely effected before the end of February (Dec. 20.) That there is no cause for alarm; and if the public confidence be equal to the solidity of the bank, the establishment will assuredly continue; and commerce derive its usual advantages therefrom.

Sixthly—The Administrators certify that the Bank is not indebted to any public chest nor is any public chest indebted to the bank; and that they have never made any operation directly or indirectly, with the government.

J. Ch. Duvillier, Fuicheron, Deyon, Jubie, Girardet, J. Recanier, Desprez.

The Minister of Foreign Affairs has also sent the following letter to the Diplomatic Agents, and Consuls of the French Republic, in foreign countries:

"I send you, citizens, a copy of an arrette of the executive directory, bearing date of Bramaire 28 [Nov. 18th.] I request you to give it the greatest publicity. The event to which this article alludes, would have not taken place, if the administrators of the current accounts, too confident in this situation, had not disguised the amount of the sums which citizen Monneron owes to the chest. However, it was sufficient to state publicly the situation of the chest, to dissipate every uneasiness. It has resumed immediately its usual service: its bills are received every where as cash, and nothing remains of that event but the usual regrets which commonly follow groundless alarms. Malevolence will certainly not fail to paint it abroad in other colours; it will be sufficient for you to oppose to it the truth.

Health and Fraternity.

[Signed]
CH. MAU. TALLEYRAND.

NEW-YORK, March 27.

Extract of a letter from a young gentleman of this city, dated on board the General Greene, March 6, 1799.

Dear Sir,

"Since I last wrote you by the Lavinia, capt. Carson, via Philadelphia, informing you of our safe arrival on our station, we have been at the Havannah to water, and since that, have been convoying Americans to and from that port.

We had not the good luck of falling in with an enemy till the 5th inst. when we came across a French privateer who struck to us after the fourth shot. On boarding her, she proved to be a schooner pierced for twelve guns, and small arms, &c. and manned with 26 men. She had left the Havannah the day before we took her, and the captain had said, that in less than 24 hours after he was out, he would have three or four Americans as prizes. His Commission having expired, he was bound to the Cape to have it renewed; but having about seventy barrels of beef and pork on board, he pretended when we took her, to consider himself as a merchantman, and thought we would not make a prize of him: he was soon made sensible of his mistake. They are all safe on board the Commodore, and in irons. She and her cargo will amount to about 4000 dollars. Our commodore means, when we return to port, to have her manned and armed out of the fleet, and being a fast sailer, she will certainly be an acquisition to our little squadron. There are at present in the Havanna, a cutter mounting 16 nines, and a schooner of 14 sixes, likewise another in a port to windward, with the sales of several American prizes on board to the amount of nearly 40,000 dollars. We are continually on the look out for these gentlemen, and have not the least doubt before the cruise is over, we shall have the whole or part of them, and so clear thi scoast of these plundering picaroons so ruinous to our commerce."

INFERNAL OUTRAGE.

A gang of United Iriſhmen, yeſterday beſet the houſe of Mr. Brown, Editor of the Philadelphia Gazette, at ſeveral different times during the day, but not finding him at home or finding him armed, were repeatedly foiled in their deſign to murder him. At about 2 o'clock, however, ſeveral of them carried their deſign partly into execution, by aſſaulting and abuſing Mr. Brown in the moſt cruel and barbarous manner. The following publication was declared by the aſſaſſins to be the ground of their outrages.

Dr. Reynolds in the Chair!

On Monday the 18th inſt. a number of United Iriſhmen aſſembled to get drunk together at a private houſe, having neither caſh nor credit to procure an entertainment at a public one—Dr. Reynolds was unanimouſly called to the chair—what a villainous gang muſt it have been when he was the chief! The toaſts and muſic uſed on the occaſion, have in them a degree of hardineſs and contempt for the public feeling of this country, that could ſcarcely have been looked for even from the deſperate band that huzza'd to them.

"The French Republic—Iriſhmen cannot be ungrateful." Nine cheers, and the Marſeilles Hymn."

What has France done to deſerve the gratitude of Ireland? Under deception after deception, under promiſes of aſſiſtance and protection, which France did not and could not afford, Ireland became plunged into a ſcene of univerſal uproar and carnage, and is gaſhed with many a deep wound, which years will not heal. Who ſhould curſe France more loudly than Reynolds and his aſſociate in rebellion? Did not this perfidy of France, this promiſed aid which never arrived, drive him and his aſſociates into extremities, not at firſt contemplated, and which have ended in the baniſhment of Reynolds and many hundred of his brethren—in the hanging of ſuch as were not fortunate enough to eſcape, and the entire diſcomfiture of the whole ſyſtem of inſurrection—It is evident too that France endeavored to ſeparate Ireland from Great Britain, to take poſſeſſion of herſelf, and that the Iriſh directory began to diſcover this, which produced ſome delay and confuſion in their negociation.

"Army of "Ireland"—Muſic, Ca Ira"

This muſt mean THE KING'S ARMY in Ireland, as there is no other there.

"The Emigrant Iriſh Republicans—Soon and ſucceſsful be their return."

Amen! Amen! and let all the people ſay amen!

"The Martyrs of Iriſh Liberty; who have taught us how to live and die—Tone, Fitzgerald, &c. &c."

That is, how to live in infamy and die on the gallows—a United Iriſhman does not require many leſſons for this inſtruction.

"Alexander James Dallas; the independence of the Bar."

That theſe fellows ſhould toaſt their Attorney is no way remarkable; as Iriſhmen cannot be ungrateful, it was certainly indiſpenſable; but that the ſhould talk of the independence of the Bar, is moſt aſtoniſhingly impudent.—It is not aſcertained beyond all controverſy, that every juror, witneſs, juſtice or lawyer, concerned in the apprehenſion or conviction of any United Iriſhman, was expoſed almoſt to certain aſſaſſination, from that deſperate banditti in Ireland, among whom Reynolds, was a leading character.—It was even a ſolemn reſolution, that if a United Iriſhman, conſented to a verdict againſt a United Iriſhmen, "he ought to loſe his exiſtence." Here is the independence of juſtice then finely diſpoſed of: And yet theſe fellows have the effrontery to come here and prate about the independence of the Bar.

Many obſervations might be made on this private entertainment; but as it may have been the principal object of theſe poor wretches "to puſh about the jorum," and get mellow without expence, it is a pity to interfere with the only pleaſure they can enjoy.

A. B.

Although the murderous deeds of this the moſt deteſtible banditti, that ever infeſted a civilized community cry aloud for the avenging arm of juſtice; and although the violated ties of nature, the offended charities of ſocial intercourſe, and the common civilities of life, ought to have enſured the apprehenſion of the aſſaſſins, yet the mob who gathered round them was ſo baſe as to let them off.

Thus the immediate Agents have eſcaped: our attention turns, therefore, to the two villains who ſuborned them. A fellow, once acquitted for an intent to murder, very naturally tries his hand at it again. With him no one is more likely to coaleſce, than the infamous wretch who could pervert the currents of juſtice to acquit him. Theſe two villains, I mean to hang up to the infamy they merit, in terms ſo clear that their perſons can not be miſtaken, but as it is deſirable to comprize under one view all that is to be ſaid on this occaſion, and as one point on which it will be neceſſary to dwell, as material, is not yet fully aſcertained, (I mean, whether Claypoole and Bradford condemn or applaud, or wholly omit to notice this tranſaction) what remains to be ſaid, along with ſome collateral evidences in my poſſeſſion, is reſerved for another day.

N. B. As proſecutions for pretended libels have become more common (and ten times more oppreſſive in the mode of their conduct) that the Lettres de Cachet of Louis Quatorze, I venture to ſuppoſe that no one will be abſurd enough to preſume that I mean to convey any alluſion to Dallas, Secretary of State, and of the Democratic Society.

COMMUNICATED.

Yeſterday morning, a dark-viſaged United Iriſhman, who appeared, by his looks and manners, to have recently eſcaped to this country, called on Mr. Brown, the Editor of the Philadelphia Gazette, and began in an abuſive manner to queſtion him reſpecting a publication in which one Reynolds, the chief of the gang, had been properly treated for his impudence in toaſting the French Republic at a recent feaſt on St. Patrick's day; Mr. Brown, in a ſpirited manner, drove the fellow from his door, but without that chaſtiſement which he ſo richly deſerved. About 2 o'clock, two more of this gang of ruffians, ruſhed in upon Mr. Brown while he was dining alone, and one of them attacked him with a bludgeon, while another, of ſuperior ſize and ſtrength, held a young man who would otherwiſe have handed Mr. Brown a weapon for his defence—after ſtunning Mr. Brown by a ſevere blow on the head the villain ſeized him by the hair, and with his feet, by the moſt violent efforts, attempted to deſtroy him, but being ſuddenly alarmed by the approach of the neighbours, both the villains made off; ſoon after the principal of the gang (Reynolds) had the impudence to ſhew himſelf, and was ſoon followed by two others, and ſeveral more were ſeen lurking about the door, apparently to effect a reſcue, in caſe of need. None of theſe fellows were known except Reynolds, who, by keeping himſelf apparently detached, ſeemed to hope that he might eſcape being implicated in this deteſtable plot; but it is hoped that the unerring hand of juſtice may ſoon overtake the whole of theſe horrid conſpirators, who having already forfeited their lives by treaſons in their own country, are ſtill anxious to meet their deſerts in this.

To Mr. FENNO.

SIR,

I FIND myſelf under the diſagreeable neceſſity of appealing to the public, in contradiction of a malicious and unfounded falſehood, which appeared in your paper of the 27th inſt. under the New-York head, which ſtates that I had compelled a French privateer to ſtrike, and then had not courage to take poſſeſſion of her.

Every man who is acquainted with the duty of a commander of a veſſel of war, will admit, that if the privateer had ſtruck, it was not my duty to take poſſeſſion of her, but to have ſent an officer.

The report may have ariſen from my chaſing a French privateer into the iſland of St. Euſtatia, at which I fired a number of ſhot; which chaſe I continued as near to the ſhore as I thought prudent and proper; all the particulars of which were communicated to the proper officer.

The report is ſtated as having come from one of my officers, which I am convinced is as impoſſible as it is untrue.

THOMAS WILLIAMS.

TRIBUTE TO TRUXTON.

As the reſpectability and proſperity of the United States, eſſentially depend on the potency of the Navy—the ſpirits of the people are very naturally raiſed by the recent pleaſing event. It is therefore, we underſtand, concluded to exhibit public evidence of joy for the Succeſs of the Conſtellation, and gratitude to her brave commander, on Saturday at one o'clock P. M. It is expected ſalutes will be fired by all the armed ſhips in the harbour, and by the Artillery Company at each end of the town—while the Citizens, collecting in State-ſtreet, will reſpond in ſymphonious huzzas.

The Inſurgente, previous to capture, had taken five Engliſh veſſels and one American; and they arrived ſafe at Guadaloupe, to prorogue ſtarvation.

Mr. Porter has been acquitted of the Murder of his Children.

Captain Fiſher, from the Havannah, had his veſſel taken by a French privateer. He and his crew were forced on board their boat and turned adrift. They were 7 days at the mercy of the waves, and 4 days without proviſions. At length they were picked up.

HARTFORD, March 25.

Laſt Wedneſday evening the PRESIDENT of the United States arrived in this City, and the next morning proceeded on his journey to his ſeat at Braintree.

NEW-YORK, March 28.

On Saturday laſt, a man calling himſelf John D. Hariſon, bought of Caſimir de laf Vigne, No. 13 Courtlandt ſtreet, a parcel of watches, amounting to 3801 dollars and 60 cents, which he requeſted might be ſent to his lodgings, when the caſh would be paid. The ſeller accordingly ſent the watches in a trunk, and the purchaſer drew a check on one of the banks for the amount, which, on being preſented, was refuſed, as no ſuch perſon had accounts with the bank. The bearer of the check returned to the place where he had left the watches, but Harriſon had abſconded with them, and could not be found. A reward of 500 dollars was laid to have been offered for his apprehenſion. Search was made, and, on Tueſday, about ſunſet, he was taken on board of a Hoebuck ferry boat, while croſſing the river, with the trunk. The watches, except a few, were found in it—7 were in his pockets, and he had ſold 6. He was lodged in the watch-houſe, and yeſterday morning carried before the police. On being queſtioned why he drew a check on the bank, knowing he had no money there, he replied, that he expected by that time, there was a depoſit of caſh from New-Orleans to meet the draft!

He was committed to priſon, will doubtleſs be tried at the preſent ſeſſion of the ſupreme court, and meet the fate deſerved by ſo baſe an act of ſwindling and fraud.
